The Impending Workforce Tsunami

Leading In a Very Different Workforce Climate

Keynote Address

The Impending Workforce Tsunami keynote address will bring every attendee to an appreciation of the very significant leadership challenges every leader will face over the next few years:

- Critical specific skills shortages
- General worker shortages
- The challenge of building organizations that will attract, motivate and retain workers in three very diverse workgroup cohorts
 - Mature workers 55+ years of age
 - Mid-career workers 35-54 years
 - Young workers 16-34 years

- Keynote Addresses
- Half Day Workshops
- Full Day Seminars
- Daily Consulting
- Comprehensive Cultural Change Process Facilitation
- Executive Coaching

Attending leaders will be introduced to a very unique leadership model that Jerry developed and successfully used to turnaround numerous organizations he was responsible for during his 30+ years of corporate leadership. Jerry led teams as small as ten associates to organizations of 3500.
